

The illustration depicts a fantastical scene. In the upper left, a blue werewolf with yellow eyes and a red tongue is perched on a large, white, spotted ghostly figure. A man with wild white hair and a purple hat is riding the ghostly figure. A large, blue, swirling stream of water or energy flows from the ghostly figure down towards a rusted, red steamship that is partially submerged in blue water. The ship has a single smokestack and is surrounded by splashing water. The background is a gradient of blue and yellow. In the bottom right, a red crab with large eyes is walking on a sandy beach. The overall style is whimsical and colorful.
